

Associate Meat Processor

About Us

Little Colorado Meats is a newly formed business who will harvest and process USDA inspected meats. It is LCM's goal to connect underserved and food insecure communities and residents with healthier and more accessible, locally produced meats and at the same time expand market opportunities for local livestock produce. Located in the beautiful White Mountains of Arizona in Eagar, we will provide our local producers a place to have their animals harvested and packaged.

Job Role & Summary

The role of our Associate Meat Processor will be to assure all products are clean and ready for packaging and packaged and labeled in a professional manner. This person will need to be able to work in cold freezing temperatures and be able to stand for long periods of time.

Responsibilities

- Understand and follow food safety and sanitation rules, policies
- Ensure correct customer labels for products are made
- Ensure cuts are clean and ready for packaging
- Ensure cuts and packaging of meat are correct for each order
- Ensure packaged meat is appropriately labeled, boxed and ready for the freezer
- Review work order for accuracy before sending bins to freezer
- Assist with the break down, cleaning and sanitizing meat department production equipment

Skills

- Basic computer skills
- Ability to read work order
- Wrapping and labeling
- Communication
- Problem solving
- Attention to detail
- Capable of lifting, dragging and carrying a minimum of 50 lbs.
- Basic math skills

Qualifications:

- A high school diploma or GED
- Current Food Handlers Card (or procuring one within 30 days)

Knowledge:

- Anatomy of cattle, pigs and sheep/goats
- Consumer desirable cuts of meat
- Safety and cleanliness protocols appropriate for handling carcasses and meat cuts for public consumption.
- Tools and equipment used in processing
- Wrapping and packaging techniques

Benefits:

- Paid vacation (FT only)
- Accrued sick leave
- 2 personal days a year

How to apply: Complete online employment application on LittleColoradoMeats.com

Contact Information:

Terry Shove

terry@littlecoloradomeats.com

928-317-6328